FINANCIAL REPORT

1- Mr Kilpatrick

Mr Kilpatrick was a guest of the South African Tourism Board and South African Airways and formed part of an opinion leaders tour to South Africa. The ticket refund was for the travel Mr Kilpatrick did on behalf of this Board travelling from Washington DC to New York City from where the group was due to depart. Since Mr Kilpatrick was a guest we decided that we must refund him for the amount that he paid for the ticket for the above noted travelling.

2- A Luckhoff

Mr Luckhoff, a South African, acted as a guest lecturer to various church and religious groups in the Western United States of America. Mr Luckhoff came to America as a student to further his studies at a University in Portland, Oregon. This Board engaged the services of Mr Luckhoff as a guest lecturer on South Africa on our behalf and the amount of $4400-00 was a fee we agreed upon to pay to him.

3- Press Luncheons

The Minister of Tourism and the Executive Director visited the United States in order to acquaint themselves with the position of the South African Tourism Board and its operations in the United States of America. In order to brief the Press as to operations and policies we held several luncheons and Press functions where the Minister addressed either the Press or Travel Agents as to developments in South Africa. The visit must be regarded as a promotional visit.

4- Steven B Stevens

Mr Stevens is a Public Relations Consultant specializing in the religious market. On behalf of the South African Tourism Board and South African Airways Mr Stevens produced a television video program for distribution among primarily the charismatic religious market. The program signified the religious revival in South Africa in addition to showing to viewers the scenic beauty and variety of travel to South Africa. Since Mr Stevens also acted as our Public Relations Consultant he was engaged and used on several occasions to address groups of a religious nature or attend religious trade shows on behalf of this Board and South African Airways.

5- Asta Groups

During the course of 1986 this Board in conjunction with South African Airways hosted several select Asta groups, (ASTA being the American Society of Travel Agents) to South Africa. These groups predominantly consisted of opinion leaders, Chapter Presidents, Area Directors or Board members of the various Asta Chapters in the United States. Since Asta members play a major role in recommending travel all over the world we felt it important that these people be kept abreast of developments in South Africa and we took the advantage of exposing them to South Africa once again.

FINANCIAL REPORT (CONTINUED)

6- Bible Pathway Group

We hosted Bible Pathway to South Africa to do an in-depth study and reasearch on the religious revival in South Africa. Bible Pathway is a religious affiliation in the United States based in Tennessee and a group of religious personalities under the leadership of Mr Charles Fitzgerald visited South Africa.

Mr Ponce de Leon

Mr Ponce de Leon visited South Africa as a guest of the South African Parachute Association and Swissboogie a Swiss based parachute association. The purpose of Mr de Leon's visit to South Africa was to acquaint himself with the conditions in South Africa for parachuting and to return to the United States in order to promote the annual Swissboogie which takes place at Phalaborwa, South Africa.

Mr Edewaards and Mr W W Dawson

Mr Edewaards and Mr Dawson visited South Africa as guests of the Professional Hunter's Association of Southern Africa; this Board and the Safari Club International in order to address local chapters of the above noted associations during their annual meeting at Sun City, Bophuthatswana.

Mr T Martin

Mr Tim Martin is a journalist with the New York Newsday Newspaper. Mr Martin visited South Africa as a guest of this Board forming part of the opinion leaders group.

7- Mr Kimball and Mr L Williams

Mr Kimball and Mr Williams visited South Africa as guest speakers at the Conference on Conferences. Several high quality speakers from all over the world were invited to address this meeting which was held in Durban, South Africa. From the United States we had decided to invite Messrs. Kimball and Williams to address this very select conference in South Africa on behalf of the United States.
